NOTES;

Car parking is limited and is offered out by the centre on a first come first served basis for which there is a fee.

There is an NCP Car Park on Albert Street just a few minutes walk away. There is also a Car Park on Moor Street quite close but this is often used by shoppers and is quite expensive.

Birmingham Moor Street Station is just a very short walk away.

We are hoping that this year our Spring Conference timetable will allow more of you to share with each other, the committee and speakers. Each year the feedback we receive always makes reference to the importance of shared experience and the limited time available. This year we have fewer formal sessions and more time available for discussion and individual contact
